In 1989, Suzanne Laidlaw founded and directed Laidlaw (Aust.) Pty Ltd. This was started in the back room of her father’s business and became a major Western Australian supplier.

On a sporting level, Suzanne is very well known in the triathlon community and in 2013 represented Australia at the World Triathlon Championships in London. Not long after having both knees reconstructed, she completed her life-long dream of swimming solo the 20 km Rottneest channel swim.

At an early age Suzanne realised she had a passion for inspiring people to turn their dreams and ambitions into reality. She has 25 years in key business management roles and a rainbow of life experiences. She is also Ambassador for Opportunity International Australia who work to set up micro businesses for women in developing economies.

Suzanne will speak from her heart and share her life experiences and challenges with us. She is an amazing lady and no doubt her presentation will be amazing as well!
