Guest Speaker—

Kelda Oppermann

Kelda Oppermann is the CEO of Zonta House Refuge Association and has 13 years' experience working in the community services sector. As CEO, her expertise in leadership, business development and improvement has seen a remarkable transformation at Zonta House.

Kelda is passionate about how Zonta House can achieve better outcomes and have a greater social impact. Key are programs to provide safe and supportive accommodation; increased wellbeing and economic independence of women; better family relationships; and breaking the cycle of family and domestic violence.

Twelve months ago Zonta House partnered with the Centre for Social Impact UWA to assist them in reviewing their self-developed Life Matrix and link data for analysing the overall impact of their programs. She said—"We need to continuously review what it is we are aiming to achieve."

Kelda will tell us more about the Social Impact Report which was released on 10th June, current copies of which are available on the Zonta House website.
