CELEBRITY TRAY PROJECT

Zonta Club of Perth Northern Suburbs Inc. is raising funds through the auction and sale of a variety of uniquely painted and decorated wooden trays by various local artists. All proceeds from the auction and sale will provide funding for our ongoing commitment to victims of domestic violence. The 'Patricia Giles Centre' will receive these funds to continue their 'Camps' program which provides counselling, education and support to women and their children who have witnessed and/or experienced violence in the family.

Herewith are a couple of paintings submitted by artist, Shirley Winstanley. She said "The first one is an image of some children on a beach. I had painted a tray like this for my sister in Melbourne who is in bed for 6 months after having broken bones in a foot pinned and plastered, and she enjoys using her tray every day, so I thought the same 'happy' image might be of interest to someone in the Tray Auction. The second are eggs in a carton. I had done a painting of these eggs, and that painting had sold. It just appealed to me as something 'breakfasty' and I liked the colours."

We anticipate to have over 100 uniquely painted trays of various sizes on display to be up for sale and/or auctioned on Saturday, November 26th from 2:00pm at The Boulevard Centre, Floreat.
