Dear Sir / Madam

Charitable Collections Act (1946) – Re-Issue of a WA Licence

I am pleased to advise that the Commissioner for Consumer Protection has approved the re-issuing of a licence to Zonta Club of Perth Northern Suburbs Incorporated under the provisions of the Charitable Collections Act (1946).

From 1 July 2020 all WA Charitable Collection licences will be issued as a Continuous Licence with no expiry date. This is subject to the organisation complying with the conditions stated on the licence certificate.

Any failure to comply with the stated conditions on the certificate will result in the Revocation of the WA licence.

If your organisation is registered with the ACNC you will only be required to lodge your annual financial return with them. As long as you enter your WA licence number on the AIS statement you complete for ACNC they will notify this Department. There is no requirement for you to lodge with this office as well.

However, if you are not registered with the ACNC you will need to submit an annual return with this office within six months of the end of your financial year.

Our website www.dmirs.wa.gov.au/charities is being updated and new forms are available under Forms & Publications. There is also further information to assist your organisation with any charitable collection issues including an A to Z List of all Charities and dates of approved Street Collections.

If you require a copy of the Charitable Collections Act (1946) and Charitable Collections Regulations (1947) these may be accessed from the Department of Justice, legislation website at www.legislation.wa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
